Job Description:

The Grants Manager reviews all aspects of RYCO's grant-making in view of its compliance with RYCO's procedures and alignment with RYCO's strategic objectives. S/he informs the Director of Programs on the grant implementation and pursuant results, so they could feed the programmatic considerations and planning on the organizational level in concert with the M&E Coordinator and the respective frameworks developed and rolled-out. S/he also works in concert with the Program Manager and Finance Manager to ensure that RYCO's grants adhere to the same standards organization-wide and deliver on RYCO's strategy and specific agreements made with donors. S/he is also in charge for coordinating any grant-making activity beyond the "project-related" one and supports (project staff) team leaders and others concerned with grant administration through capacity building and hands-on support where required. If problems arise in certain Contracting Parties/with certain grantees, RYCO's Local Branch Office in charge can request the Grants Manager help, either in situ or via skype, to help with specific contracting or monitoring challenges. All duties performed by the Grants Manager must be in line with RYCO internal rules and procedures.

Main responsibilities:

- Coordinates all steps of grant-making (from Call for Proposals to the approval of final financial and narrative reports) of grants RYCO makes outside those assigned to specific agreements with funding partners;
- Reviews the Call for Proposals and grant documents of each Call RYCO publishes, and ensures that it is in line with RYCO's strategy and with agreements made with the respective funding partner.

- Reviews all the documents related to the grant making of RYCO, and ensures that it is in line with RYCO's Strategy and with agreements made with the respective funding partner.
- Supports the work of the project-specific grant-making teams and their administrative backup by sharing RYCO's grant-making practice, checking compliance with applicable rules and regulations (including for example the assessment, due diligence and grant selection committees, negotiation of grant agreements and contracting, approval of narrative and financial reports), and ensuring that applications recommended for funding are in line with RYCO's organisational objectives and agreements made with the respective funding partners.
- Maintains regular communication with grantees, receives their interim and final programmatic and financial reports;
- Together with the other staff in the grant team, supports RYCO's Local Branch Offices (LBOs), team leaders and other staff responsible for grant-making by enabling them to respond timely and correctly to inquiries of "their" grantees. Remains available for inquiries regarding the grants under her/his direct supervision;
- Informs the Director of Programs on the grant implementation and pursuant results, so they could feed the programmatic considerations and planning on the organisational level in concert with the M&E Coordinator and the respective frameworks developed and rolled-out. S/he also works in concert with the Program Manager and Finance Manager to ensure that RYCO's grants adhere to the same standards organisation-wide and deliver on RYCO's strategy and specific agreements made with donors.
- Works in close cooperation with RYCO's Communication and Visibility Manager to ensure media presentation and outreach regarding the grant schemes under her/his direct supervision
- Manages the Grant team.

Requirements:

- Citizenship of one of the WB 6 Contracting Parties;
- Bachelor's degree with minimum of three (3) years of higher education; ;
- At least five (5) years of experience on managing grant schemes or project management experience in a complex multi-stakeholder environment;
