

Call for Participants: RYCO Research Mentorship Program

Are you ready to explore why young people are leaving the Western Balkans and how we can change that? Do you want to better understand youth unemployment and propose evidence-based solutions?

Project Overview

The Regional Youth Cooperation Office (RYCO), supported by the Austrian Federal Ministry for European and International Affairs, is launching a new project to address two of the most common youth issues in the Western Balkans: brain drain and youth unemployment.

We are looking for young researchers who are passionate about making a difference and ready to take part in an evidence-based journey to help shape the future of young people in the region.

What's in it for You?

- ✓ Capacity building through training and mentorship by Western Balkan researchers living and working in Austria
- ✓ Study visit to Graz, Austria – explore research institutions and connect with experts
- ✓ Collaborate with fellow young researchers from across the Western Balkans to develop evidence-based solutions
- ✓ Present your research and ideas at a final conference in the Western Balkans, attended by policymakers, academics, and civil society representatives
- ✓ Become part of the RYCO Pool of Young Researchers after the project

What do we expect from you?

- Active participation in the Study visit (planned in Early May)
- Active participation at the biweekly online meetings after the study visit (May – September)
- Active participation at the final Conference of the project (early November)
- Able to work online with the team on the research topic
- Become part of the RYCO Pool of Young Researchers after the project
- Cooperation with RYCO, teammates and mentors

Who Can Apply?

If you are:

- A young researcher aged 18–29 from *Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo* , North Macedonia, Montenegro, or Serbia*
- Currently studying in the field of Social Sciences (BA, MA, or PhD)
- Interested in becoming part of the RYCO Pool of Young Researchers after the project
- Able to work and communicate proficiently in English
- A passport holder of at least one of the WB6 Contracting Parties (CPs)

How to Apply?

Choose one topic:

- Youth unemployment
- Brain Drain
