

10 YEARS OF YOUTH COOPERATION

For a decade, RYCO has been turning shared visions into reality, bringing together thousands of young people, and partners to break barriers and co-create a connected Western Balkans.

WHO WE ARE?

The Regional Youth Cooperation Office (RYCO) is an intergovernmental organization fostering peace, reconciliation and cooperation across the Western Balkans.

Working for and with youth, we build a better region by creating exchange programs and opportunities for students, high schools, young professionals, and civil society organizations.

A DECADE IN NUMBERS

395+
Funded Projects

16
Open Calls

2,8M
Social Media Reach

€19M
Invested in Youth

85,000+
Youth Empowered

5500+
Students & Teachers Trained

70,000
Annual Web Visitors

For 10 years RYCO has transformed the regional landscape, proving that youth cooperation is the driving force for peace.

